

Own the rental economy brand.

Short, memorable, and instantly understood — built for platforms that want to feel default.

Why this name wins

- Rent is the most repeated transaction in housing (monthly, bi-weekly, etc.)
- W3 is a modern, ticker-grade identity that scales with adoption
- .rent completes the brand with instant category clarity.
- Built for trust, conversion, and platform authority.
- Strong synergy with w3.apartments / w3.homes / w3.realestate.

Best-fit buyer paths

- Lane A — Marketplace: search → apply → pay
 - Rental discovery marketplace (city, national, niche)
 - Applications, screening, onboarding, payments

- Lane B — Leasing infrastructure: workflow + automation
 - Lease generation, e-sign, renewals, document vault
 - Property management / resident portals

- Lane C — Web3-ready renting (optional): identity + deposits
 - Portable renter identity / reputation (privacy-respecting)
 - Faster settlement & programmable deposits primitives

Acquisition process (simple + secure)
